This is getting ridiculous. I'm going to send you victim statement too. Initially gave me a thumbnail and asked me to provide suspect contact info so they could "resolve out of court". I go to suspect home without full detail from victims and get VERY different story. Suspects still acknowledge "too close for comfort" and skiing violations but all an accident which they already apologized for. "Bulshit!" Says victim and now (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) a negligent and planning to send Vic our VAP brochure- clamoring to charge everything under the sun. I've written each suspect (b)(6)(b)(7)(C) ) but I think I'm done with this. Would appreciate second set of eyes because victim already talking to everybody about this. Any other recommendations?
